Gentlemen:

We refer to your letter dated December 11, 2013 requesting for clarification and/or confirmation of the news article entitled "GMA, PLDT back to negotiating table" posted in the BusinessMirror (Internet Edition) on December 10, 2013. The article reported in part that:

"NOW with a better offer, GMA Network, Inc. has entertained a fresh round of negotiations with Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. (PLDT).

According to a source, discussions for the company, led by businessman Manuel V. Pangilinan (MVP) to acquire GMA Network, Inc. from its major shareholders commenced last month. "We can confirm that there are talks lately. It's been more than two weeks since the talks started. But definitely talks are moving," said the source."

We advise that Mediaquest Group is constantly on the lookout for potential opportunities in the multimedia sector, and it is currently in exploratory talks with a number of content distribution and multimedia companies, including GMA7, for possible commercial or strategic arrangements. The appropriate disclosure will be made by the Mediaquest Group if any of these opportunities become a definitive transaction.

Respectfully yours,

MA. LOURDES C. RAUSA-CHAN
Corporate Secretary
