Gentlemen:

We refer to your letter dated August 30, 2016 requesting for clarification and/or confirmation of the news article entitled "Court of Appeals halts commissions review of telco deal" published in the August 30, 2016 issue of The Manila Times. The article reported in part that:

"TELCO giants PLDT and Globe Telecom scored an initial victory in connection with a legal battle over their acquisition of the telecommunications business of San Miguel Corp., with the Court of Appeals halting competition regulators from reviewing the mega-deal.

In a seven-page resolution obtained by The Manila Times, the 12th Division of the appellate court issued a writ of preliminary injunction barring the Philippine Competition Commission (PCC) and its agents from conducting the review.

The injunction was issued, the court said, so as not to impair the rights of PLDT, Globe and San Miguel as it hears the telco giant's petition questioning the PCC's decision to investigate the P69.1-billion deal...

The August 26 injunction, penned by Associate Justice Ramon Bato with Associate Justices Manuel Barrios and Maria Elisa Sempio-Diy concurring, was addressed to PLDT.

'Let a Writ of Preliminary Injunction be issued, enjoining and directing the respondent PCC, their officials and agents, or persons acting for and on their behalf to Cease and Desist from conducting further proceedings for the pre-acquisition review and/or investigation of the subject acquisition based on its Letters dated 7 June 2016 and 17 June 2016 during the effectivity hereof and until further orders from this Court,' the resolution stated.

We advise that our legal counsel in the subject case officially received today the Resolution of the Court of Appeals (12th Division) granting the preliminary injunction enjoining the Philippine Competition Commission from conducting further proceedings for the pre-acquisition review and/or investigation of the acquisition by PLDT and Globe of the telecommunications business of San Miguel Corporation, until further orders from the said Court. PLDT has instructed its legal counsel to immediately post the required bond in the sum of P1.0 million.

Respectfully yours,
