Statement re the DOLE Clarificatory Order

MANILA, Philippines, July 26, 2018 -- On 11 July 2018, Labor Secretary Silvestre Bello III issued a Clarificatory Order regarding his department's previous orders directing PLDT to absorb and regularize over 7,300 employees of its service contractors. On 18 July 2018, PLDT, through its counsel, received a copy. On 24 July 2018, PLDT filed a Manifestation with the Office of the Labor Secretary questioning the legality and propriety of the Clarificatory Order. A summary of the key points of this Manifestation is shown below. A copy of the Manifestation is also attached to this statement.

In its manifestation, PLDT sought to impugn the Clarificatory Order of the Labor Secretary, saying that the said order was "irregularly issued, procedurally inappropriate, based on selective and/or biased information, and vague."

It was irregularly issued because, among others, the Clarificatory Order was released even though the previous orders of the Labor Secretary (issued on 10 January and 24 April 2018) are "final, cannot be modified and subject to the proceedings before the Court of Appeals".

"If the intent of the Clarificatory Order is to expand, modify or alter the regularization orders, then to that extent it contravenes jurisprudence and established procedure," the PLDT Manifestation said.

Moreover, the Clarificatory Order was issued without giving PLDT a chance to be properly heard, as required by due process of law. The Labor Secretary released the order immediately after he met with representatives of the PLDT labor union, the Manggagawa sa Komunikasyon sa Pilipinas (MKP) on 11 July 2018. As it stated in an earlier Manifestation to the Office of the Labor Secretary on 16 July 2018, PLDT did not receive a notice calling it to such a meeting.

"Regretfully, because the Clarificatory Order was issued immediately after this meeting with the MKP, it cannot escape the impression that the Order is based entirely on a factual position advocated by the MKP which is ... inaccurate and misleading. In all candor, these circumstances also increase PLDT's concern that it will not receive a fair hearing on this matter before this Honorable Office," PLDT's Manifestation said.

In its manifestation, PLDT added that Clarificatory Order was issued because the Labor Secretary appears to have concluded that PLDT is "defying or disobeying its regularization orders".

“If this is the conclusion of the Clarificatory Order or this Honorable Office, then with due respect it is wrong. PLDT has not taken any act to ‘frustrate or tend to frustrate’ this Honorable Office’s regularization orders,” PLDT said, adding that the PLDT’s Intake Process is “the logical, reasonable and necessary step in response to those regularization orders.”

This Process does not require workers in the DOLE list to “apply” for employment, contrary to the false and misleading claims by the MKP. Unfortunately, PLDT has not been even asked by the Labor Secretary to explain its Intake Process.

The Intake Process starts with the identification of the individual worker “to determine first and foremost that he is on the regularization list enumerated by this Honorable Office, and second, to ascertain that the person presenting himself or herself as such is indeed the same person on the regularization list,” explained the PLDT Manifestation.

The Process also asks the workers to provide information relevant to employment, such as his Social Security, Philhealth, PAG-IBIG and Tax Identification Number (TIN) details, in a manner compliant with the data privacy law.

PLDT’s Manifestation asked if these efforts to properly identify the individual worker and to comply with social insurance benefits, income tax regulations and data privacy rules constitute conditions that “frustrate or tend to frustrate” the regularization orders?

The Intake Process also requests the worker to take a medical exam. “Does the Clarificatory Order hold this against PLDT, given that the medical exam (a) is required of all PLDT employees in order to commence availment of PLDT’s extensive medical benefits; (b) establishes that the worker is physically fit to take on the job; and (c) is intended to protect the entire population of PLDT employees from communicable diseases?” the PLDT Manifestation said.

PLDT said that allegations against the Intake Process come from parties who have not participated in it or have a vested interest adverse to PLDT and therefore cannot serve as a reliable basis to conclude that the Intake Process should be stopped by DOLE. It pointed out MKP has encouraged workers not to participate in the Intake Process.

Any order finding PLDT liable for alleged ‘contumacious’ actions, if based on such defective evidence or factual bases, “is regretfully an unjust judgement”. PLDT reserves the right to take corresponding legal steps to assail such an order, the Manifestation said

Finally, to clarify various press reports quoting labor groups and the Labor Secretary, PLDT reiterates that it did not terminate the contracts with its service providers and thus cause the displacement of the workers assigned to PLDT.

What happened was the DOLE issued a Cease and Desist Order directing 38 service contractors to stop providing various services to PLDT. That same order also directed the start of proceedings to cancel their registration as service contractors, thus placing at risk the jobs not only of the workers assigned to PLDT but also of those workers posted with other customers of these service contract firms. [END]

MANIFESTATION
(Re: Clarificatory Order dated 11 July 2018)

Establishment PHILIPPINE LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CO. INC. ("PLDT"), by counsel to this Honorable Office, respectfully states:

1. On 18 July 2018, PLDT, through counsel, received a "Clarificatory Order" issued by this Honorable Office, which states:

"Consistent with the Resolution dated 10 January 2018 and the Resolution dated 24 April 2018, this Office clarifies that pursuant to existing laws, the regularization of workers as a result of the finding of labor-only contracting takes effect by operation of law, and is not subject to any condition. Any act or condition imposed that frustrates or tends to frustrate the order to regularize is contumacious and shall be dealt with in accordance with law."

2. With due respect, this Clarificatory Order is irregularly issued, procedurally inappropriate, based on selective and/or biased information, and vague.

I. The Order was irregularly issued (a) apparently, after the Honorable Secretary of Labor and Employment's meeting with a single interested party in this matter; (b) because it did not account for the fact that the Honorable Secretary's 10 January 2018 and 24 April 2018 Orders (the "regularization orders") are final, cannot be modified, and subject to proceedings before the Court of Appeals; (c) despite the fact that it appears to relate to an execution issue, the venue for which is properly before this Honorable Department's Regional Office.

3. The Clarificatory Order is dated 11 July 2018. However, even prior to PLDT's receipt through counsel, an undated version of the Order was shown to media at a press conference immediately following the Honorable Secretary's meeting with members of an interested party in this matter, PLDT union Manggagawa ng Komunikasyon sa Pilipinas (MKP).

3.1. This was the subject of PLDT's Manifestation dated 16 July 2018, which indicated that PLDT did not receive a notice calling it to any 11 July 2018 conference, and that PLDT reserved the right to comment on the appropriateness of the Clarificatory Order having been disseminated to the media prior to service on PLDT.

4. Regretfully, because the Clarificatory Order was issued immediately after this meeting with the MKP, it cannot escape the impression that the Order is based entirely on a factual position advocated by the MKP which, as argued further in II below, is inaccurate and misleading. In all candor, these circumstances also increase PLDT's concern that it will not receive a fair hearing on this matter before this Honorable Office.

5. If the intent of the Clarificatory Order is to expand, modify or alter the regularization orders, then to that extent it contravenes jurisprudence and established procedure. Put another way, this Honorable Office is bound by the terms of the regularization orders it issued. As explained by the Supreme Court:

"xxx Any error in the decision which has not been considered in a timely motion for reconsideration or appeal cannot be impugned when such error becomes apparent only during execution. This rule applies with more force in the case of the deciding judge who has limited prerogative during execution of the judgment. For as correctly held by herein public respondent, aside from ordering the enforcement of the dispositive portion of the decision, the trial judge can do nothing about the errors in the ratiocination of the decision or even alter the dispositive portion by mere order issued subsequently to the finality of the decision."¹

6. As this Honorable Office is aware, these regularization orders are currently subject to review by certiorari before the Court of Appeals – not just via a Petition initiated by PLDT, but in several other separate Petitions commenced by almost all of the affected service contractors. An attempt to modify the regularization orders to address any procedural or substantive vagueness is certainly not an effort that is sanctioned by procedure, and is likely to be viewed unfavorably on judicial review.

7. PLDT also has the understanding that the Clarificatory Order relates to a matter that is subject to execution, which therefore ought to be threshed out in execution proceedings before the DOLE's National Capital Region (NCR) Regional Office, not before the Honorable Secretary.

7.1. The rule on Execution in DOLE Order No. 183-17, for instance, relates to execution proceedings before the Regional Director, and does not contemplate the issuance of interlocutory, or "clarificatory," orders, by the Honorable Secretary.

7.2. Indeed, it is unclear how this matter was brought before this Honorable Secretary in the first place, given that as of the date of the Clarificatory Order no returns of service from the DOLE-NCR Sheriff's office were available (nor at least, made available to PLDT or its counsel).

7.3. The Clarificatory Order makes no such references, nor is premised by circumstances describing that execution of the regularization orders had run into an enforcement problem that necessitated the issuance of any further orders, much less a "Clarificatory" one. Nor do the terms of the Clarificatory Order justify the extraordinary intervention of the Secretary in a matter that ought to be pending before a subordinate office.

II. To the extent that it is directed against PLDT, the Clarificatory Order - as with the regularization orders before it - appears to be based on selective, biased and anecdotal evidence, from parties who have not even participated in PLDT's Intake Process and therefore are unreliable or are not credible to complain about it.

8. Media reports quoting the Honorable Secretary indicate that PLDT is apparently the object of the Clarificatory Order, as this Honorable Office appears to have concluded that PLDT is defying or disobeying its regularization orders.

9. If this is the conclusion of the Clarificatory Order or this Honorable Office, then with due respect it is wrong. PLDT has not taken any act to "frustrate or tend to frustrate" this Honorable Office's regularization orders.

10. PLDT has, precisely, commenced an "Intake Process" as a good faith effort to respond appropriately to those regularization orders.

10.1. Any allegation or implication that the Intake Process is intended to frustrate the regularization orders, derives from sources who have not participated in it, or have a vested interest adverse to PLDT, and therefore cannot serve as a reliable basis to complain or conclude that the Intake Process ought to be stopped by this Honorable Office. MKP itself has encouraged the workers to refuse to participate in the Intake Process.

10.2. To the extent that the Clarificatory Order is premised on these unreliable sources, then it suffers from the same defects as the regularization orders: it is based entirely on a selective, anecdotal and highly biased appreciation of evidence.

10.3. Any orders finding PLDT liable for alleged "contumacious" actions, if based on such defective evidence or factual bases, is regretfully an unjust judgment, and PLDT reserves the right to take corresponding legal steps to assail those orders, both before the courts by judicial review, as well as administratively and in other appropriate fora.

11. PLDT's Intake Process has several features which show that it is the logical, reasonable, and necessary step in response to the regularization orders.

11.1. For one, they commence with an identification of the individual worker, to determine first and foremost that he is on the regularization list enumerated by this Honorable Office, and second, to ascertain that the person presenting himself or herself as such is indeed the same person on the regularization list.

11.2. Because of the Clarificatory Order's vagueness, does it mean to imply that even this very basic and essential step of identifying the proper party, is a "condition imposed that frustrates or tends to frustrate" the regularization orders?

11.3. The Intake Process also asks the worker to provide information relevant to employment, such as his Social Security, Philhealth, PAG-IBIG, and Tax Identification Number (TIN) details, in a manner that is compliant with the Philippine Data Privacy Act.

11.4. Because of the Clarificatory Order's vagueness, does it mean to imply that an attempt to comply with social insurance benefits, income tax withholding regulations, and data privacy rules, is a "condition imposed that frustrates or tends to frustrate" the regularization orders?

11.5. The Intake Process seeks to establish a baseline medical record for the individual worker, with a request for him to take part in a medical exam.

11.6. Does the Clarificatory Order hold this against PLDT, given that the medical exam (a) is required of all PLDT employees in order to commence availment of PLDT's extensive medical benefits; (b) establishes that the worker is physically fit to take on the job; and (c) is also intended to protect the entire population of PLDT employees from communicable diseases?

11.7. The Intake Process' job interview is not the same in-depth interview done with job applicants, but rather is intended to ascertain which workplace or worksite is a convenient or appropriate location for the worker, and determine to which work unit he can be assigned.

11.8. Does the Clarificatory Order completely brush aside the logistics of this exercise and the considerations of operating a company, given the sheer number of workers covered by the regularization orders, and not allow PLDT to at the very least sort through those to be regularized and coordinate their accommodation in an orderly fashion?

12. Put plainly, the Clarificatory Order does not clarify those “acts” or “conditions” that are supposedly objectionable, and instead of clarifying matters simply muddle them some more, with an added layer of due process concerns on the part of PLDT given the circumstances of the Clarificatory Order’s issuance.

12.1. This is also a painful consequence of the abbreviated pre-execution proceedings, wherein these matters could have been better threshed out had not there been a rush to issue a Writ of Execution.

13. Finally, it bears reminding that PLDT reserves all of its rights and remedies under the law, including those raised in its Court of Appeals Petition.

RELIEF

WHEREFORE, foregoing considered, PLDT respectfully moves that this Honorable Office (a) NOTE this Manifestation for the record; and (b) treat this pleading as a “Motion to Clarify,” as the circumstances warrant.

Such other just and equitable relief is also prayed for.
